HARRIMAN, ROOSEVELT AND CARNEGIE THREE GREATEST SOCIALISTS, SAYS UPTON SINCLAIR

"Mr. Harriman is the greatest Socialist because he is concentrating everything. That is what the Socialists Want. The big fish gobble the little ones; he is gobbling everything. mately the people will gobble Harriman, and the distribution of his holdings will follow."

"After Harriman, as a Socialist, comes President Roosevelt. He is determined to curb the syndicates, and so he falls in with the Socialist theory. Mr. Carnegie expresses the belief that a millionaire ought to share his wealth with the poor. Isn't that the purest Socialism?"
